

Quality Challenges Working for the Nuclear Sector

Wed 26th March 2014 - CQI NucSIG event at Darchem (Esterline)

Mike Underwood NucSIG Chair

Welcome and Introductions

- NucSIG has been established now for six years
- Focus on:
  - Events
  - Standards
  - Influence
  - Competence/Learning and Development
- New Steering Group members –
  - Bob Dixon, EDF
  - Michelle Pearce, NDA
  - Alec Boughey, BAE Systems
  - Neil Iveson, Sellafield

Nuclear Supply Chain

Lots going on:

- New Build NAMRC and NIA
- Sellafield
- BAE Systems
- Darchem experience
- ISO 19443

Agenda

1	Introduction to Darchem, Safety etc	Philip Vaughan, NI Northern Chair/ Esterline	10.15
2	CQI NucSIG and overview of day	Mike Underwood CQI NucSIG Chair	10.30
3	Nuclear Advanced Manufacturing Research Centre: Fit for Nuclear Programme	Paul Bunting, NAMRC	10.40
4	Learning from supply chain quality issues: on the Sellafield Evaporator D Project	Neil Ivison, Head of Profession for Quality Sellafield	11.00
5	Improvements to the SL Supply Chain Quality Arrangements	Gordon McNeil, Head of Transformation and Supply Chain Quality, Sellafield Ltd	11.20
6	Discussion	Mike Underwood	11.40
7	Buffet/Opportunity to tour Darchem site.	Philip Vaughan/ Gary Jobling	12.00
8	Quality requirements supplying to BAE Systems	Alec Boughey, Senior Quality Manager, Supply Chain QA, BAE Systems	13.00
9	Experiences/challenges supplying to customers in the nuclear sector	Gary Jobling, Esterline Technical Services Director	13.20
10	Discussion	Mike Underwood	13.40
11	Workshop in 5 groups	Mike Underwood	14.00
12	Conclude	Mike Underwood/ Philip Vaughan	14.50